When is my policy effective?	Coverage is effective after you satisfy any waiting period required by your employer. Coverage will not begin until Guardian has approved any amount subject to medical underwriting.
Do I have to answer medical questions as part of purchasing insurance?	No
Can I take the policy with me if I leave the company?	You may be able to port this coverage to a group trust plan. You must answer some medical questions to help us assess your insurability for the ported coverage.  Yes, you can convert this coverage to an individual policy if you terminate employment with the company or the policy ends. (Some restrictions apply; see certificate of benefits for more information.)

Basic Life and General Exclusions

Estimated premiums; refer to your first paycheck deduction for final rates. Your company has selected Guardian to provide life coverage to eligible employees according to plan terms which have been mutually agreed upon. As an eligible employee, you can purchase this coverage at the group premium levels illustrated above.

Infant coverage is limited for the first two weeks of infant's life.

You must be working full-time on the effective date of your coverage; otherwise, your coverage becomes effective after you have completed a specific waiting period.

Employees must be legally working in the United States in order to be eligible for coverage. Underwriting must approve coverage for employees on temporary assignment: (a) exceeding one year; or (b) in an area under travel warning by the US Department of State. Subject to state specific variations.

Evidence of Insurability is required on all late enrollees. This coverage will not be effective until approved by a Guardian underwriter. This proposal is hedged subject to satisfactory financial evaluation. Please refer to policy booklet for full plan description.

Dependent coverage will not take effect if a dependent, other than a newborn is confined to a hospital or other health care facility, or is home confined, or is unable to perform the normal activities of someone of like age and sex. (may vary by state).

The group policy or individual certificate cannot be contested after it, or any rider or amendment subsequently added to it, has been in force for a period of two years.

If the age or any other relevant factor of the insured has been misstated, Guardian or its subsidiaries will use the true fact in determining whether insurance is in force under the terms of the certificate and in what amounts.

Dependent coverage will not take effect if a dependent, other than a newborn is confined to a hospital or other health care facility, or is unable to perform the normal activities of someone of like age and sex (may vary by state).
